If You’re a Dog and You Know It
If you’re a dog and you know it bark like this, “Woof, Woof!”
If you’re a dog and you know it bark like this, “Woof, Woof!”
If you’re a dog and you know it and you really want to show it,
If you’re a dog and you know it bark like this, “Woof, Woof!”

If you’re a dog and you know it wag your tail, (wag your tail)
If you’re a dog and you know it wag your tail,
If you’re a dog and you know it wag your tail,
If you’re a dog and you know it and you really want to show it,
If you’re a dog and you know it wag your tail.
The Paws on the Dog
Tune: Wheels on the Bus
The paws on the dog go trot, trot, trot.
Trot, trot, trot, trot, trot, trot.
The paws on the dog go trot, trot, trot.
All through the town.

The ears on the dog go flop, flop, flop...
The nose on the dog goes sniff, sniff, sniff...
The tongue on the dog goes lick, lick, lick...
The bark on the dog goes woof, woof, woof...
The tail on the dog goes wag, wag, wag...
The people with the dogs go, "SIT!"

Activities:
Hungry Puppy- This circle time game will have your little ones howling with delight as they feed bones to a hungry pup! To make a puppy prop, tape together a shoebox and its lid; then cover the entire box with brown bulletin-board paper or a cut paper bag. Stand the box on one end; then decorate it to resemble a puppy by gluing on construction-paper eyes, ears, and whiskers, and a construction-paper nose. Cut an opening in the box to resemble a mouth; then cut an opening in the back of the box that is large enough to fit your hand through. Cut out at least a class supply of different-colored construction-paper bones.

To play, give one or more bones to each child in the group. Lead students in chanting, “Puppy, puppy want a treat. What kind of bones will he eat?” Designate a color; then direct those children holding bones of that color to “feed” them to the puppy. Continue until each child has fed his bones to the hungry pup. For a variation, program the bones with letters, numerals, or shapes. Woof!

Paper Bag Puppets – make paper bag puppet dogs and construction paper bones, cut a hole in the dogs “mouth” so he can eat the bones.
